Glimpses

05 – 06 Apr. 2019

Triumph Hotel, New Cairo

It is a tailor made interactive sessions for a group of physicians participating in lively case, discussions with peers, sharing opinions and benefits from everyone's background in a friendly and relaxing atmosphere.

By the end of this fruitful workshop, our participants learned to understand the current knowledge and optimal management strategy of each patient presenting with complex coronary artery disease. How to apply the optimal treatment strategy considering the patient's clinical situation.

The participation of the 'EURO PCR Directors' along with the plenary and diversified discussions between our international guests and audience had such a great impact to level up the outcomes of the workshop.

Thank you ICOM for making this event an unforgettable experience to all participants.

Complex PCI & Structural Masters Forum

02 – 03 May, 2019

Dusit Thani Hotel, Cairo

ICOM Team had the honor to organize the Complex PCI & Structural Masters Forum 2019 (CVREP in partnership with TCT) from 03 – 02 May 2019 at the Dusit Thani Hotel, Cairo, Egypt.

The Forum was a chance to engage Top Cardiologists and allied professionals from Egypt & USA in an enriching set-up to yield effective teams working together to identify, avoid and resolve Cardiovascular issues.

The Forum provided attendees with the most comprehensive review of the latest advances in heart and vascular medicine. As Cardiovascular medicine continues to evolve and change rapidly that requires a robust commitment to continuing medical education.

We hope attendees learned something new about this increasingly complex sector and made some fruitful connections throughout the day.

Euro PCR

21 – 24 May 2019

Paris, France

Cardiovascular conditions are becoming more and more common. To the patient, new therapies mean faster recovery and higher quality of life.

For interventionists, they mean constantly mastering complex, demanding procedures.

Sharing experience and networking with high standard professors and medical industry leaders are exactly what our team needed to help advance therapy outcomes.

Our Medical Education & Research Team was present in this focused course to benefit from the plenary discussions running around this important topic.

CardioAlex2019

18 – 21 June 2019

Jun. 18th 2019 marked the kickoff of one of the TOP Events in Egypt, Middle East and the Whole World Our Beloved City 'Alexandria' witnessed the 18th Annual Conference 'CardioAlex2019' held for 3 consecutive days at Bibliotheca Alexandrina.
